Church History I: Early Christianity

The history of Christianity from the second to the sixteenth century will focus on the beliefs and practices of significant individuals, movements, and institutions. We will explore Christianity in the West (Europe and North Africa) and in the East (Eastern Mediterranean, Slavic peoples, Asia). We will ask about Christianity's engagement with Islam before 1500. Special attention will be given to: (1) The authority and role of the Bible; (2) Early Christian missions in the Americas and Asia. In this seminar each participant's life and faith experience is valued.

The goal is that through our immersion in Christian History we can live into a more informed participation in our respective faith communities, both locally and globally.

Taught by Jane Atkins Vasquez
Tuesday evenings, 6:45-9:15pm

Tustin Presbyterian Church
225 W. Main St.
Tustin, CA 92780

Jane Atkins Vásquez, Ph.D. teaches Christian history in English and in Spanish for the New Theological Seminary of the West and the certificate program of the Disciples Seminary Foundation. She is a graduate of Washington University in St. Louis, the University of Madrid and the University of New Mexico. She is a Ruling Elder in the PC(USA).

"NTS West offers the opportunity to learn with and from Christians from diverse backgrounds. My passion in teaching is to awaken interest in the histories of our peoples in their journeys of faith through the centuries."
